FAMILY CONNECTION

Press On

The gospel empowers us to live on mission for Christ. We need this truth every day.

As You Go

These are simple questions to ask your students as you go home from church or go about your weekly activities.

.01 HOW HAS GOD BEEN GOOD TO YOU OR TO OUR FAMILY?

.02 HOW MIGHT REMEMBERING GOD'S GOODNESS AND FAITHFULNESS HELP US LIVE FAITHFULLY ON MISSION FOR HIM?

Family Devotion

Consider following up with your student later in the week with the following summary and discussion questions.

Summary: Acts 20:24-38

As Paul neared the end of his life and realized that he would never see the people of the church at Ephesus again, he pointed out how he had spent his life investing the gospel in them and other churches. He challenged them to spend their lives proclaiming the gospel and building the kingdom of God. In Paul's final address to the leaders of the church of Ephesus, he compelled them to focus their lives on proclaiming and living out the gospel.

Discussion Questions

.01 HOW ARE WE TO BE ON GUARD AGAINST FALSE TEACHERS?

.02 THINK OF SOME PRACTICAL WAYS YOU CAN SERVE OTHERS AS YOU LIVE ON MISSION FOR CHRIST THIS WEEK.

Pray: We are unable to live on mission for Christ by our own strength. Ask God to give you strength and to remember that the gospel empowers you to live on mission for Him.

Reflect on everything you've studied in Acts so far with your student.

- Encourage students to use the Bible Reading Plan and the 7 Arrows for Bible Reading provided in their Personal Study Guides as a tool to study God's Word this week.
- Challenge them to live on mission for Christ this week. Seek to find an opportunity to serve on mission together with your son or daughter in the coming weeks.
