Friends & Relatives

Warren Martin: McKenna (my granddaughter) was diagnosed with the flu and her surgery has been rescheduled for February 24. Please continue to keep her in your prayers.
Sarah Hart: Please pray for Sue Ward from Saluda, NC who has recently been diagnosed with cancer. Her daughters Reeda and Nora and their families are friends of the Carters and Harts. Many of the Holland Park ladies have met Reeda at our Bonclarken retreats she's come to with Sarah Hart. Thank you on behalf of Sue, her children and grandchildren.
Pam Billings: Praise Report! Thanks for all the prayers on behalf of David Sharp. He is at home. Has recovery ahead.

The Antonaides': Pray for Skylar as she is going through a tough time. She is anorexic and keeps saying she is heavy when she is small. She is also growing away from her faith. We just ask that you keep her in your prayers. Please also pray for Terri Greco, Barbara Dalton and Mike Antonaides. Also from son, Gage A: I just want to ask you to pray in helping my sister. She has an eating disorder, and she thinks she's fat when she's a size 0. She is disrespectful to my family and is pushing us away, as well as her friends. I also want to ask that you pray for my grandmother as she is a widow. My grandfather died a couple of months ago and his birthday was on Jan 30. I know she is going to be very sad. I just ask that you pray over her, comfort her and let her know that her husband has made it home to God. Thank you.
Tammy Washburn (Frequent Guest): Several unspoken, Tony Hess, Aubrey Faucette and baby DJ, Rachel Kay (Cancer), Ernest and Cathy Lark, and the lost.
Kathy Bond: Please pray for my nephew, Rob Frasier as he needs a liver transplant. Pray as well for the donor.

Carl Lancaster: Praise report! My son, Mark has got a job. He is to begin work on Feb. 10.
From Bob Davis on the request for prayers for Lusly Perdomo. (She is the wife of the preacher for the Church of Christ in Santa Barbara, Honduras. Lusly has been diagnosed with breast cancer. Pray that the chemo treatments will be effective.

The Axsoms: Pray for Jaquan Lay.
The Bakers: Our customers, Cory and Marna Costanso have a 7 year-old daughter, Teagin who has neuroblastoma, a type of cancer. She is 7 years old. Please pray for her and her family. Our friend, Tom Maggio has a respiratory infection and also has ongoing heart issues.
The Evers: Tisha Cox, our daughter, started living at Harmony House, a recovery program. Please pray she stays with and grows from this program.

Clementine Smith: Pray for my parents: Keith and Carmine Segars.
Sharon Powell: One of my WEI (World English Institute) students, Lander, sent me this sad message a few weeks ago:
"Well... The political chaos affects every single one of us. Haiti now is going down the tubes and us young peoples should be the worst victims. I have never seen this kind of tribulation before, therefore it's difficult for to even explain how I feel and how damaging this issue is. How have you been? I am trying my best to eventually migrate to the Dominican Republican, although I may face other challenges before I settle but I'd rather do this instead of dying somewhere without any kind of hope." Lander has been my students for about 7 years. I even met him when I was in Haiti. Please keep this young man in your prayers! Thank you!
Carl Lancaster: Priscilla Langley has kidney cancer. She was a former co-worker. Pray for her.
