Reading for Weeks of November 22nd and 29th

Deut 6 -11 and Deut 27-30

The children of Israel spent 40 years wandering in the desert as the Lord prepared them to enter the promised land. As that day approached and Moses' life drew to a close, he took time to remind them of the covenant God has made with them and what it takes for them to be faithful to the covenant.

Spend some time over the next few weeks looking at what God expected from the children of Israel as they entered this new land as his special people.

1. List all the ways would they be blessed if they were faithful?

2. What were the consequences if they were not faithful?

3. How were they supposed to remember what God had done for them and what he had commanded them to do?

4. How was being God's chosen people meant to change their lives?

5. Count the # of times in these ten chapters that Moses told them to obey.
